North Island of New Zealand Part 1

New Zealand • North Island • Part 1

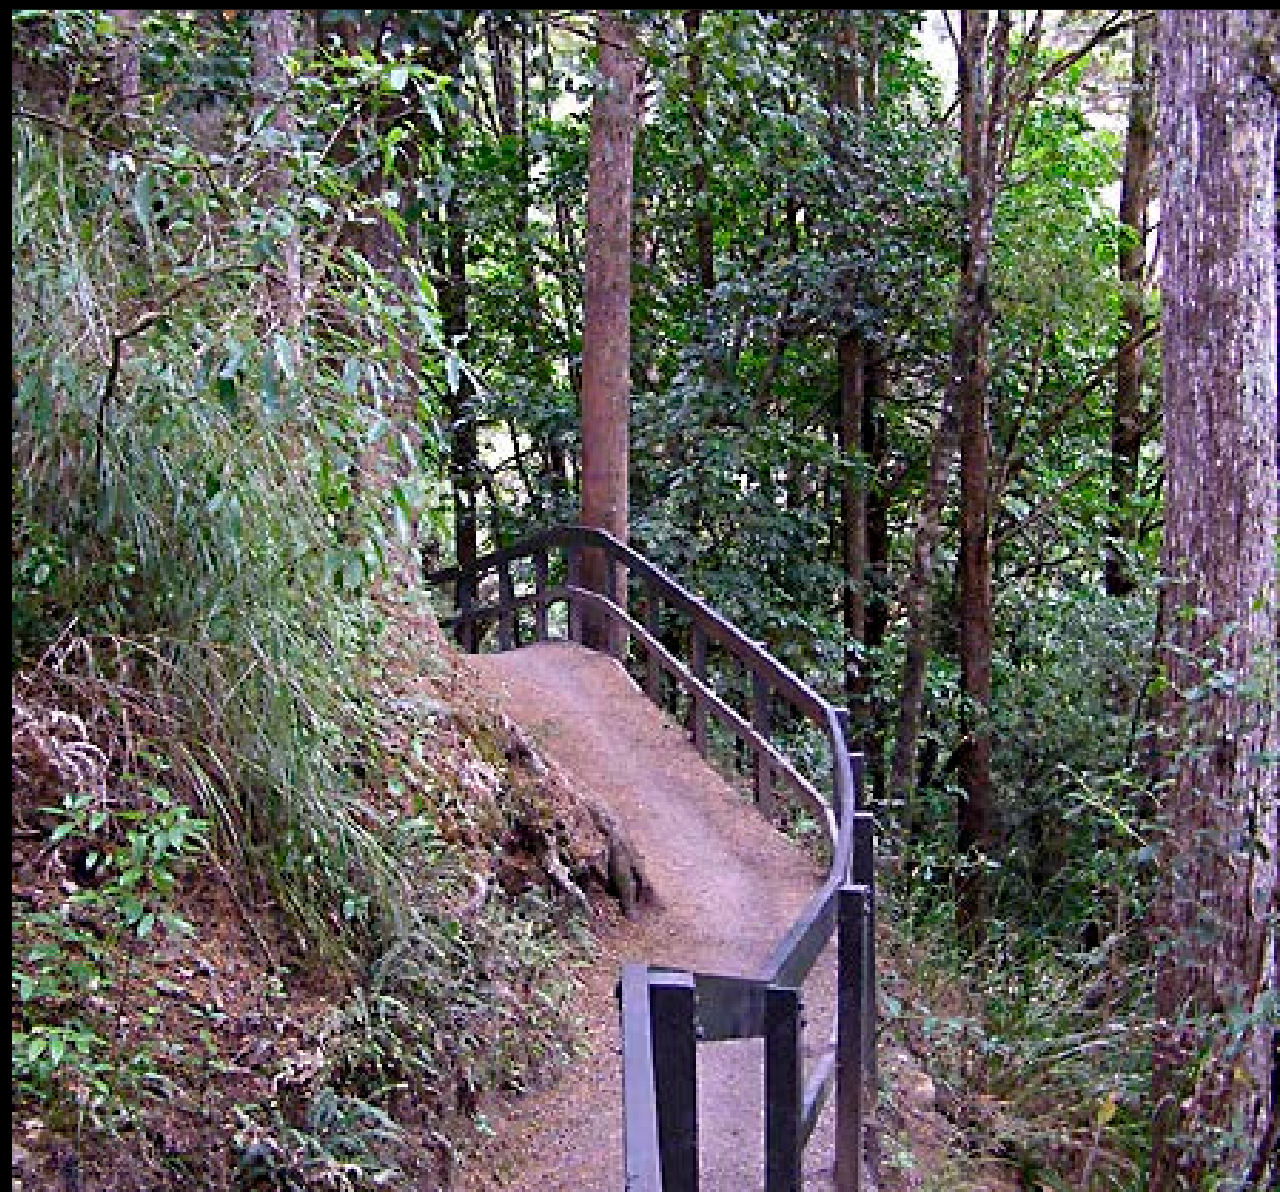

The almost 5 days on Rarotonga are over and the trip has continued to New Zealand, where we arrived at 22 in the evening after a 4 hour flight and hotel accommodation.

Next day at 9 was I picked up at the hotel and at 10 the camper was handed over. From here it went north. It took an hour to get out of Auckland.

At one point I was kind of fed up with impressions and the plug was pulled out 3 days before the crossing to the South Island.
